Tourism imperialism & ethnocide

For decades, and particularly since the 2009 US and Canadian-backed military coup ousted Honduras' last democratically elected government, tourism invaders ("investors") have collaborated with corrupt and repressive Honduran regimes - headed by military-backed Presidents Porfirio "Pepe" Lobo and Juan Orlando Hernandez - to push aggressively ahead with illegal, oftentimes violent land grabs.

Both regime Presidents have family members in jail in the US on drug-trafficking convictions. Both have been directly implicated in drug-trafficking themselves, by US prosecutors.

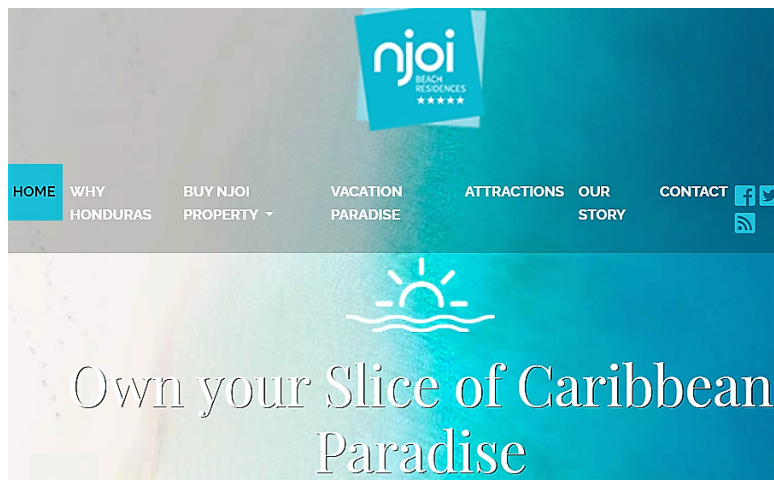

This is US and Canadian foreign economic policy at work. The US and Canada maintain full relations with the Honduran regime, considering it a staunch "democratic allie".
